

INDIAN LAW FIRM AWARDS

INDIA BUSINESS LAW JOURNAL NAMES THE OUTSTANDING LAW FIRMS OF 2016.

REBECCA ABRAHAM REPORTS

48 IBLJ / FEBRUARY 2017

who has used the firm since 2011, describes it as “very reactive, efficient, professional and client oriented”. He commends partner Vasanth Rajasekaran for “his tremendous ability to produce high quality work in short periods of time”.

Bernard praises the late Sunil Seth, who was the firm’s managing partner, for his “great sense of client relationship”. Sunil Seth will no doubt be sorely missed by his clients and colleagues.

BEST NEWCOMER

WINNER

TechLegis

entrepreneurial lawyers have set up on their own but India Business Law Journal names only one law firm as the best newcomer of 2016.

TechLegis was set up in April 2016 by Salman Waris after stints at Seth Dua & Associates, HSA Advocates and elsewhere. It currently has a team of 12 lawyers, who provide strategic, legal, regulatory and tax advice across various industry sectors including technology, media, telecom, pharma and life sciences, and intellectual property.

The firm has hit the ground running and recently advised Beijing Digital Telecom and its Singapore-based special purpose vehicle New India Investment on the acquisition of a 49% stake in Spice Online – a deal valued at US$2.5 million and one of the highest strategic